HOME SCHOOL AGREEMENT 2009 - 2010

Name of child _____

Parkfield Primary School is committed to raising achievement and we will endeavour to help all children attain their full potential. In order to do this it is important for the school, the family and the child to work together.

The School will

- provide challenge for each child within a broad and balanced curriculum
- encourage children to do their best at all times
- teach children the difference between right and wrong
- teach children about their rights and responsibilities
- encourage children to show respect for themselves and their property
- encourage children to show respect for others and their environment
- set, mark and monitor homework
- inform parents about progress and performance through Parent's Evenings and reports home
- keep parents informed about school activities through regular news letters
- inform parents as soon as possible about any concerns or problems affecting their child's work, attitude or behaviour

The Family will

- ensure your child attends school regularly, punctually and is properly equipped
- tell the school immediately if their child is to be absent that day
- accept the school's ethos and support the staff
- support school policies and guidelines for behaviour and discipline
- attend parents' evenings and discussions about your child's progress
- let school know of any concerns or problems that might affect your child's work or behaviour
- encourage their child to work hard and take pride in our school
- make sure homework is checked and sent back to school
- respond as soon as possible to any communication from school concerning their child's behaviour, attendance or school work
